

Fibre Reinforced Composites in Treatment with Dental Implants

The workshop brings an understanding the principles of application adhesively bonded fibre reinforced composite bridge, the effect of fibre reinforcement on durability of composite crown and large composite restorations and post endodontic treatment with minimally invasive system of flexible pins. For all topics the theoretical background and clinical advantages will be discussed as well as practical training for all topics will be a part of this workshop.